B. K. Tolani, a philanthropist and social worker. It is one of the oldest and largest colleges in Mumbai. The College is a recognized Linguistic (Sindhi) Minority Institution, Affiliated to University of Mumbai. It has a long tradition of providing quality education and training to students from all over India. The College has a strong academic tradition and is known for its high standards of education. It has a wide range of courses and programs, including undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Commerce, Economics, and Management. The College also has a strong focus on research and innovation, and has produced many successful graduates who have gone on to make significant contributions to society. About the Webinar: Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) are a set of legal rights that give the creator of an original work of authorship the exclusive right to reproduce and distribute the work, to control its appearance in derivative works, to prevent others from copying or using the work without the creator's permission, and to sue for infringement. IPR is a critical component of the global economy, as it encourages innovation and creativity by providing creators with the incentive to invest in their work. However, IPR can also be a source of controversy, as it can restrict access to knowledge and information. This webinar will explore the role and importance of IPR in the academic world, and will provide an opportunity for students to learn more about this important topic. Speakers: The webinar will feature a keynote speaker and two resource persons. • Keynote Speaker: Prof. Dr. J.
